

WOMEN IN SCM

Women Impacting Supply Chain Excellence (WISE)

Organization for students promoting the field of supply chain management/logistics.

Achieving Women's Excellence in Supply Chain Operations, Management, and Education (AWESOME)

Organization (and scholarship) dedicated to transforming the future of supply chain leadership and bringing together senior women leaders for connecting, learning, collaboration, recognition, and inspiration.

To apply for scholarships, visit:
<https://financialaid.colostate.edu/scholarships/>

SCM SCHOLARSHIPS & AWARDS

Supply Chain Management Scholarships

Multiple scholarships awarded to full-time undergraduates enrolled in the College of Business at CSU with a concentration in Supply Chain Management with a minimum 3.2 GPA.

APICS NOCO Operations Management Scholarship

Awarded to a full-time undergraduate junior or senior majoring in Management in the College of Business with an overall GPA of 3.0 Must demonstrate leadership and service to the community. Strong preference given to students pursuing a supply chain management certificate or certification.

Our Supply Chain Management (SCM) program provides an exceptional education that equips students for the rigors of the marketplace, recently tying for 3rd place among all U.S. supply chain programs for educational breadth, and 29th overall.

SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS
COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

JOIN US!

Our vision is to transform the lives of students, practitioners, and faculty through the Supply Chain Management (SCM) program and the generosity of our SCM Forum partner companies.

WHAT IS SCM?

Supply chain management focuses on purchasing, producing, moving, and providing goods and services globally.

SCM AT CSU

- 90-100% job or education offer rate within 180 days after graduation.
- The average starting salary for Supply Chain management graduates is $62K.
- 83% of students hold internships when at the College of Business.
- Over 325 SCM students have been certified as supply chain analysts (CSCA) through APICS.

SCM FORUM

In 2011, the SCM Forum was established to foster strong relationships between partner companies and students through student engagements, research participation, practicum projects, and semi-annual conferences.

The SCM faculty believe in your success and growth in the field of Supply Chain Management. We are confident that our students can make a profound difference in the world and equip you with the necessary tools to build a fulfilling career. Come join us in Supply Chain Management!

SCM CURRICULAR OPTIONS

OLSM CERTIFICATE ONLY (CHOOSE 3)

Operations, Logistics & Supply Management (MGT 375, MGT376, MGT377, MGT486)

REQUIRED

Adv. Supply Management.....MGT375
 Adv. Service & Manufacturing Operations.....MGT376
 Adv. Logistics.....MGT377

CHOOSE 4

Enterprise Resource Planning Systems.....CIS411
 Financial Management: Theory & Application.FIN370
 Creativity, Innovation, & Value Creation.....MGT330
 Leading High Performance Teams.....MGT411
 Study Abroad (Indonesia, Singapore).....MGT482E
 International Business Management.....MGT475
 Negotiations and Conflict Management.....MGT476
 Practicum in Supply Chain Management...MGT486B
 Seminar: Supply Chain Management.....MGT492

COMPANIES WE COLLABORATE WITH

SCM AS A CAREER...

- Supply Chain Consultant
- Project Manager
- Process Improvement Manager
- Operations Manager
- Supply Chain Analyst
- Sustainability Specialist
- Buyer
- Supply Manager
- Import/export Agent
- Purchasing Manager
- Procurement Analyst
- Supply Chain Coordinator

MANY AND MANY MORE!